

RISK SOMETHING FOR GOD

MARK 8:34-35

“If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

For those who want to save their life will lose it,
and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.

Opening Prayer

(inspired by Mark 5:21-43)

Loving God,
we are yours.
We come as we are,
with our cares and concerns.
We long to be made whole and find healing in your embrace.
Strengthen our faith
and heal our brokenness, that we may worship you with joy. Amen.

Invitation To Pass The Peace Of Christ

Hearing God's Word

Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Assurance of Grace (responsive)

Prayer Time

God's mercies are fresh every morning.
In Christ God offers forgiving grace and welcome into a community of trust, abundance, and hope.
We give thanks for the mercy of God, Amen.

Call to Confession

God calls us in our lives to take a risk, to be like the woman in the gospel who reaches out to Jesus for healing for herself;
or the father who risks the scorn of others kneels before the carpenter and begs for his daughter's life.
Let us ponder for a moment the places in our lives where we may resist turning to God for healing and change.

(silence)

Litany of Confession (responsive)

When we resist your call to open our hearts to allow the freshness of your grace to enter:

God have mercy.

When we close our eyes to your new and unexpected possibilities of healing and reconciliation:

Christ have mercy.

When we let fear overwhelm us,
and cling to the security of what we know instead of risking new steps toward your freedom and justice:

God have mercy.

Prayer for Healing

For those whose lives are broken by distress
May the God of healing restore you.

For those whose lives are broken by fear
May the God of healing restore you.

For those whose lives are broken by anger
May the God of healing restore you.

For those whose lives are broken by pain
May the God of healing restore you.

For those whose lives are broken by illness
May the God of healing restore you.

For those whose lives are broken by sin
May the God of healing restore you

God of healing gently touch these lives with your Spirit.
Bring warmth and comfort life and wholeness restoration into fractured lives and souls.

Beauty and the Cross

Beauty and the Cross- Ecclesiastes says "God makes all things beautiful in its time." In the cross, we have this moment of great tragedy, the death of God. Yet, the cross is now a declaration of hope and the restoration of humanity. In our greatest act of hate, the love of God was unleashed.

Lenten Art Project – Prior to Ash Wednesday, we are making available a series of crosses for anyone interested in coloring. These crosses will be a part of our Lenten worship this year. The coloring sheets will be at the entrances to our worship spaces. Take one, or more, color them, and return them to the church by February 7.

Fellowship Adventures

On February 13, we will go to Columbia Entertainment Company to see "A Chorus Line." First Baptist Church member, David Jacobs, is performing in the show! Tickets are $10 per person, due to the church office by February 10. We will meet for dinner at 5:30 pm before the show at Ruby Tuesday on Vandiver. If you wish to attend the performance only, be at the theater by 7:15 pm; the show starts at 7:30 pm. This production is not recommended for children under 12 years of age. Please RSVP to Paula Thomas, Fellowship Chair, by February 8 at paulalou52@gmail.com.

Movie Night — March 12 at 5:30 pm

First Baptist presents a Movie Night for all ages! Gather in the Fellowship Hall for pizza prior to the movie. Popcorn will be provided during the movie. Adults will be watching and discussing "The Emperor's Club," a feel good movie about a dedicated teacher (Kevin Kline) who has spent his entire adult life inspiring his students and then comes to appreciate that his students taught him just as he taught them. The movie is rated PG-13 for some language and sexuality. We hope you'll stay for a brief discussion following the movie. Childcare will be available for infants and preschoolers. Noah and Abby Hartsfield, will be hanging out with the children on the 3rd Floor as they watch a movie of their own.
