Gospel Reading

John 11:17-37

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world." When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Worship Notes

For many years, Jeanie McGowan was on staff at First Baptist Jefferson City as the Minister to Single Adults. She retired a few years ago and was enjoying living in her dream home, which was nestled on 2.3 acres outside Jefferson City. The home had all the features she and her husband would need to see them through retirement—including being accessible to the handicapped. Today, Jeanie will preach and tell the story of how she and her husband gave up their dream home and moved into a diverse—what some would consider rough—neighborhood on Jefferson City’s east side, just half of a block from an old state penitentiary.

Jordan Kausler to Attend Pipe Organ Encounter Camp

We are very excited to announce that Jordan Kausler, one of our high school students and piano/organ student of Colleen Ostercamp, will be attending a Pipe Organ Encounter camp at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa this coming week. The local chapter of the American Guild of Organists has provided a scholarship for Jordan to attend. Colleen and Gary are in route this morning to drop Jordan off at the camp. The camp is a week-long experience sponsored by the American Guild of Organists. It includes daily tours of local organs, lectures, lessons, and a recital at the end of the week. We are grateful to Colleen for her help in making this happen, and we are thrilled to wish Jordan a wonderful week.

Summer Small Group: Looking for a Village

Reshaping the Church's Response to the Faith Journey of Young People

What: New Summer Small Group offering- Looking for a Village- Reshaping the Church's Response to the Faith Journey of Young People.

When: Sunday mornings 10:15-11:05am, now until August 7th.

Where: 2nd Floor in the Parlor

Who is it for: Adults 18 and up. This is a vital topic for everyone in our faith community. We are looking for a healthy intergenerational mix to bring join in this discussion to better represent our congregation.

What we will discuss: In some ways, this is an intervention. It has become abundantly clear that the church is losing its appeal to the younger generation (and many in the other generations if we are honest). The attempt of this discussion is to help us as a church understand why this is happening and better equip ourselves to live out the beauty and passion of the Gospel in a way that is authentic and attractive to those around us.

Over the summer we will:

- Paint a broad picture of how the church has attempted to minister to children and youth through the centuries.
- Look at some of the social and cultural developments that have influenced how we raise kids and brought us to where we are today.
- Explore the difficult discussion of growing childhood pressure/ stress and the expanse of adolescence that has created a sense of abandonment in our young people.
- Identify how the church has responded (or not responded) to all of these changing needs.
- Determine and discuss a model that will help us frame a discussion of how to move forward and change the status quo by equipping our membership to better understand and articulate their faith, establish a shared response to what we have learned, and adjust our approach to ministry with our kids, youth, and young adults.

Life Line Screening at First Baptist, July 5

Do you have high cholesterol or high blood pressure? Have members of your family suffered from these ailments? Do you have a poor diet? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, you may want to consider being screened through the services of Life Line Screening. Life Line Screening uses ultrasound technology to view the plaque buildup in your carotid arteries, the main arteries that carry blood to the brain. Blockages in these arteries are a leading cause of stroke. We are pleased to host this Life Line Screening event on 7/5/2016 at First Baptist Church of Columbia. Register for a Wellness Package which includes 4 vascular tests and osteoporosis screening from $149 ($139 with our member discount). All five screenings take 60-90 minutes to complete. In order to register for this event and to receive a $10 discount off any package priced above $129, please call 1-888-653-6441 or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/community-partners.
