Our Worship of God

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship (responsive)

Those of us who wish to draw near to God should not be surprised when our vision goes cloudy, for this is a sign that we are approaching the opaque splendor of God. If we decide to keep going beyond the point where our eyes or minds are any help to us, we may finally arrive at the pinnacle of the spiritual journey toward God.

Let us keep going, wrestling with our doubt, journeying together through the darkness and into the light. Let us worship God.

Scripture Reading

Lexie Stone

2 Corinthians 4:16-5:10

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling— if indeed, when we have taken it off we will not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan under our burden, because we wish not to be unclothed but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

Song of Response

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

inspired by 2 Corinthians 5:6-17

Holy God, you call us to live in mystery, to walk by faith.

*Yet we long for plans with goals and schedules.
It's hard to live by faith.*

You call us to place our trust in you,
to live according to your direction.

*Yet we want life to make sense from a human point of view.
It's hard to live by faith.*

You call us to feel the mystery of life,
to marvel at the power of your love.

*Yet it's not easy to accept your promise that everything old has passed away.
It's hard to live by faith.*

Forgive us, holy maker of reality.

*Forgive us for playing god
instead of accepting our humanity.*

(Silent prayers of confession)

Words of Assurance

“My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness.”
We move into this time of communion
in the power of the Almighty,
who forgives us and loves us.

Amen.

Walk by Faith by Jeremy Camp

Benediction (responsive)

Life is a mystery.

Yet, we walk by faith and not by sight.

*God calls us when we least expect it,
inviting us to be in Christ.*

Walk out into the world, knowing that you are part of God's life-giving new creation.

*Life is a mystery. Yet, we walk by faith.
Amen.*

Summer Book Club Books Available Now!!

The Teaching Team would like to invite First Baptist family and friends to join our annual summer book club. Below are the four books being offered this year. Pick one or two (or more) to read during the summer and we will gather in late August/ early September for discussion. Books are available for $10 in office and on Sunday in the entry foyers.

Summer Small Group: Looking for a Village

Reshaping the Church’s Response to the Faith Journey of Young People

What: New Summer Small Group offering- Looking for a Village- Reshaping the Church’s Response to the Faith Journey of Young People.

When: Sunday mornings 10:15-11:05am, now until August 7th.

Where: 2nd Floor in the Parlor

Who is it for: Adults 18 and up. This is a vital topic for everyone in our faith community. We are looking for a healthy intergenerational mix to bring join in this discussion to better represent our congregation.

What we will discuss: In some ways, this is an intervention. It has become abundantly clear that the church is losing its appeal to the younger generation (and many in the other generations if we are honest). The attempt of this discussion is to help us as a church understand why this is happening and better equip ourselves to live out the beauty and passion of the Gospel in a way that is authentic and attractive to those around us.
