Song of Solomon 1:1-4, 9-15

The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your love is better than wine, your anointing oils are fragrant, your name is perfume poured out; therefore the maidens love you. Draw me after you, let us make haste.

The king has brought me into his chambers. We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.

I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots. Your cheeks are comely with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels. We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver. While the king was on his couch, my nard gave forth its fragrance. My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh that lies between my breasts. My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En-gedi.

Ah, you are beautiful, my beloved, truly lovely.

Prayer (responsive)

Carol McEntyre

We are committed to the spiritual, emotional and physical health of all people.

We seek to develop the wisdom, values and morality that promote our sexual well-being.

Sexuality is God's life-giving and life-fulfilling gift.

We celebrate our sexuality as central to our humanity and as integral to our spirituality.

We suffer because of the pain, brokenness, oppression and loss of meaning that too many experience about their sexuality.

We celebrate the goodness of creation, our bodies and our sexuality.

We suffer when this sacred gift is abused or exploited.

We celebrate sexuality that expresses love, justice, mutuality, commitment, consent and pleasure.

We suffer when our young people struggle in a culture that models sexuality without responsibility. They need to know there is a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

With God's help we will not leave anyone alone on this journey.

We suffer when our children are exploited, abused and molested.

O God, we thank you for the treasure of children in our midst: Watch over them as they learn and play; keep them safe from harm; fill them with wisdom; defend them from all evil; help us to meet their needs, and O God, hold us all in the palm of your loving hand.

We suffer with those who struggle to recover from the memories, pain and hurt of their own abuse.

We celebrate when the abundance of God’s love and the support of loving friends, helps to heal wounds, reclaim trust and restore love.

We suffer when there is discrimination against anyone because of sex, gender, color, age, bodily condition, marital status or sexual orientation.

We celebrate when we are truth seeking, courageous and just. As people of faith, we pledge to affirm the goodness of creation, our bodies, and our sexuality.

God rejoices when we celebrate our sexuality with holiness and integrity. May we lead lives full of understanding, respect and responsibility. Amen.

Message

Let’s Talk About Sex

LeAnn Gardner

Prayer (Unison)

God, help us as we live in a dynamic, growing relationship with our children as they teach us while we teach them. May we be good stewards of this oh so brief time, in which we prepare to launch them into adulthood. May they not only see their own bodies as good, but help them to see all of humanity through a lens of dignity and respect. We pray they find intimate relationship with another human being as one of God’s greatest gifts. May we be satisfied with the “micro victories” that we have throughout each day and week, which will amount to the currency that will enable us to send out equipped, healthy, humble and resilient people into a hurting world. Give us the grace to humbly accept that we are not perfect and that our children do not demand perfection, they desire authentic presence. We acknowledge that simply showing up with love and acceptance is an act of courage and we pray that you will give us the strength to be brave with our most precious of gifts. With God’s help, may it be so. Amen.

Announcements

The Child Development Center at First Baptist is hosting a Halloween Party on Friday October 28. First Baptist families are invited to come out and join the fun. All children are welcome to come in costume, but please nothing scary, and no weapons. Two-Five year olds will party in the Fellowship Hall. Supervised activities will be provided on the 3rd floor for children in 1st grade and up.

Join us for Afternoon at the Farm, Sunday October 30, at Park and Marjorie Bay's farm right outside Columbia. It is a fun filled afternoon of hayrides, food, and Trunk n' Treat for children. Directions to the farm and other details will be published as the date approaches.

About our speaker...

Today's speaker, LeAnn Gardner, LISW-CP, MDiv, is a licensed clinical social worker and an ordained minister. She received a Master of Social Work degree from Baylor University and a Master of Divinity from Truett Seminary. She began her career as a frontline Child Protective Services worker in Waco, Texas before serving in a local church as Associate Pastor.

She then taught Master's level social work students at Baylor for two years on campus, before moving home to Charleston, SC. In Charleston, she began working at the Dee Norton Lowcountry Children's Center as a therapist, conducting forensic interviews as well as helping children heal from their traumatic experiences through therapy. She continues to serve as an adjunct faculty member with the Garland School of Social Work at Baylor and has helped to pioneer their distance learning program.

Her passions include finding the intersection between faith and social work issues, particularly how people find resilience and healing through their faith after a traumatic event occurs. She also enjoys helping parents navigate 21st century issues with their children, with special attention to sexual development, using intuition as a protective factor; helping establish healthy communication patterns between parents and their children; and helping to mobilize a community of trusted adults to share in the privileged (and daunting) task of loving and rearing children. She is also the parent of two small children.
