Call to Worship (responsive)

Oh God,

Our Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer -

How do we thank you?

How do we show our gratitude?

Do you want signs and sacrifices?

Do you want gold and cattle?

Can we turn over our children to you?

Would that repay our debt, make everything right?

Tell us, what do you require in return for all your goodness?

Oh God,

Our teacher, example, companion -

You have shown us what is good, and call us to remember that what you require is not repayment of debt or settling the score, but obedience.

Show us, God, when to do justice

how to love kindness, and where to walk, humbly, with You.

Amen.

Genesis 22:1-18

The Command to Sacrifice Isaac

After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you." So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?” Abraham said, “God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.” And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place “The Lord will provide”; as it is said to this day, “On the mount of the Lord it shall be provided.”

The angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time from heaven, and said, “By myself I have sworn, says the Lord: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies, and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Announcements

Starts today: Sunday Morning Small Group Discussion at 10:15 in the 2nd floor conference room. We will wrestle with hard questions about faith, religion and God with the aid of a video series authored by Rob Bell. No simple answers are provided, but together, and through our relationship with a living God, we will explore topics such as forgiveness, doubt, healing, and spirituality. Upcoming topics include whether the word “love” is our most misunderstood and misused word; whether our lives even matter; and whether we’re too wrapped up in religion to see what matters to God. Each session stands alone, so come when you can!

A sermon discussion group begins today in the conference room following the 11:15 service. This is an opportunity to dig deeper into scriptural texts or topics from the day’s sermon that you found intriguing, challenging, illuminating or confusing. Everyone is welcome, so come give it a try. We’ll meet every other Sunday for about an hour. We’ll order in box lunches for those interested.

First Baptist Adventures takes us to Ellis Library tomorrow, October 17th. You can carpool from the church parking, or meet Noah Hartsfield in the colonnade by the north doors of the Library. The presentation, in room 401, will be a viewing of religious & theological texts from across the ages in the Library’s Special Collections and Rare Books. The tour will take about an hour, followed by dinner from about 6:30 to 7:30 at Eleven Eleven (across Broadway from the church).

Children are invited to participate in our new music program from 4-4:50 Sunday afternoons in the sanctuary. We will explore music and movement with singing, drumming and bell ringing.

Eighth Annual E-Mail Auction for the Child Development Center will be held October 31-November 4. We need your discarded treasures. Business gift certificates, products, and services are also excellent auction items. You can send a brief description and/or picture to Trudy Clevenger at momclev@rocketmail.com. All proceeds will be used to enhance the CDC’s operating budget.

Join CBF Heartland friends at the CBF Heartland Fall Assembly on Friday, October 21 from 2-9 p.m. at First Baptist Church in Jefferson City. We’ll celebrate our two decades of ministry and mission while looking forward to our bright future together. The Heartland Fall Assembly will be a great opportunity to see old friends while connecting with new ministry colleagues. There will be networking, fellowship and worship. For more information, visit cbfheartland.org.

The Child Development Center at First Baptist is hosting a Halloween Party on Friday October 28. First Baptist families are invited to join the fun. All children are welcome to come in costume, but please nothing scary, and no weapons. Two-five year olds will party in the Fellowship Hall. Supervised activities will be provided on the 3rd floor for children in 1st grade and up.

Join us for Afternoon at the Farm Sunday, October 30

This annual event is at Sunday October 30, at Park and Marjorie Bay's farm right outside Columbia. It is a fun filled afternoon of hayrides, food, and Trunk n' Treat for children. Details are in the current Spire and on our website at www.fbc-columbia.org.
