Call to Worship (responsive)

Who is this who enters the doors of our temple,
who overturns the tables,
strews silver and gold on the floor,
frees the sacrificial doves from gilded cages?
Listen, as they rise, the beating of their wings
is a song of loud hosanna.

It is Jesus of Galilee, the Son of God, who comes to cleanse the great temple,
to restore its subverted chambers
to a house of hallowed prayer.

Then let us open the doors of our hearts even wider,
so he can cast out the thieves who would take what is sacred and tender and turn it hard as gold in a fist.

May the temple within us
be a refuge where doves of peace roost in the rafters.

May it be a garden
that bears the fruits of a generous spirit.

O Lord, take what is corrupt and withered and let it break forth in beauty.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.

Amen.

Scripture Reading

John 2:13-22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to Christ.

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Jesus, cleanser of temples and souls,
look deep within our hearts and our lives,
and clear away all that holds us back.

May our minds, spirits and bodies

be a temple that is open to Your presence:

and may our words and our actions

be transparent to Your love and truth.

We pray that this church community will be purified in its life and mission, so that all that we do in and from here
may reveal Your Gospel to others.

In a moment of silence we sit before You,
and name those things for which we seek Your cleansing and healing,
so that we may be more faithful disciples.

Please pause for a moment of silence.

Friends of Jesus, we are made clean
by the words he has spoken to us.
There is room in our lives and in our community for the Holy One to dwell. Thanks be to God.

Amen.

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 3:10-17

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it.

For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— the work of each builder will become visible, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done. If what has been built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a reward. If the work is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire.

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Affirmation (unison)

Let there be no gap between us and Christ.

For if there is any gap, immediately we perish.

For the building stands because it is cemented together.

Let us not then merely keep hold of Christ, but let us be cemented to him.

Let us cleave to him by our works.

He is the head, we are the body.

He is the foundation, we the building.

He is the vine, we the branches.

He is the bridegroom, we the bride.

He is the shepherd, we the sheep.

He is the way, we walk in it.

Again, we are the temple, he the indweller.

He is the only begotten, we the brothers and sisters.

He is the heir, we the heirs together with him.

He is the life, we the living.

He is the resurrection, we those who rise again.

He is the light, we the enlightened.
