Hope. Hope nonetheless.

Hope despite.

Hope regardless.

Hope still.

Hope where we had ceased to hope.

Hope amid what threatens hope.

Hope with those who feed our hope.

Hope beyond what we had hoped.

Hope that draws us past our limits.

Hope that defies expectations.

Hope that questions what we have known.

Hope that makes a way where there is none.

Hope that takes us past our fear.

(Silent breath prayer from Psalm 118:6)

“The Lord is in me; I won’t be afraid.”

Hope calls us into life.

Hope holds us beyond death.

Hope blesses those to come.

Song of Response

*When God is a child there’s joy in our song.
The last shall be first and the weak shall be strong,
and none shall be afraid.*

†Song of Praise

Gospel Reading

Nick Kieffer

Luke 1:5-17

In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord. But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense. Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him. But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit. He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Offertory Prayer

Offering

The Night Before Christmas

Message

From Fear to Hope

Carol McEntyre

Observance of Holy Communion

Words of Invitation

In the beginning you set everything in motion,
Creator of heaven and earth.

With bold ingenuity you splashed the sky with light and stars, sun and moon; wind and clouds, rainbows and wing-ed ones.

With a word you brought forth the waters, the waves, the mountains and valleys.
And you called forth our lives from the dust and called it good.
And so we proclaim this ancient song with all of the saints and angels:

Holy, holy, holy God!
God of power!
God of might!
Heaven and earth are full of your glory!
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed are you!
Blessed are you!

You sent your Son, Jesus –
Your message-made-flesh to dwell among us:
Bringer of Hope, Prince of Peace,
Cup of Joy, Bread of Love.

Through Jesus you gave birth to your church and sealed a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us,
he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples, and said:

“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over, he took the cup,
gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:

“Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
poured out for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
In remembrance of me.”

And so as we anticipate the birth of hope anew,
we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Touch us, O Spirit, with your transforming power.
Open us to your promise of resurrection from fear and death.
In partaking of these elements, make us a people ready as your Body in and for an anxious world.
Let us become your messengers of hope in all that we say and do.
Make us one in this purpose, O God.

Amen.

The Bread Broken, The Cup Poured

†Song of Advent

Glory (Let There Be Peace)

†Benediction (responsive)

God go before you to lead you,
God go behind you to protect you,
God go beneath you to support you,
God go beside you to befriend you.

Do not be afraid.

May the blessing of God the Creator, Son,
and Holy Spirit be upon you.
Go in peace and love and serve the Lord.

Amen.

Announcements

First Kids Music

We have one more Sunday rehearsal today at 4 pm to prepare for “Breaking News,” the Christmas drama to be presented at the church-wide Christmas dinner on Sunday, December 10. Children from age 4 through grade 5 are welcome to join the fun. Please note there will be a special rehearsal Saturday morning, December 9, from 9:30-11 am in the Fellowship Hall.

Christmas Dinner

Sunday evening, December 10 from 5-8 pm is First Baptist’s annual Christmas dinner. Come prepared for a lovely meal with turkey, ham, and beverages provided by the church, and wonderful side dishes and desserts prepared by you and your First Baptist friends. Our dinner this year will feature “Breaking News!,” the Christmas story as presented by First Kids.

Staff Open House

On Wednesday, December 20 from 3-6 pm the First Baptist staff is hosting an open house at the home of Michael and Carol McEntyre at 1604 Brady Place. As a staff, we feel grateful to serve at First Baptist. This is our way of saying “thank you!” Thank you, First Baptist, for being so good to us and for making our job easy!

Christmas Eve Worship

The ultimate celebration will be the Christmas Eve worship service, the most beautiful hour of the year. We celebrate the coming of Christ with the singing of carols, the telling of the Christmas story, and the tradition of sharing the light with candles to the strains of “Silent Night.” The service is a wonderful “homecoming” for all. It’s also the easiest time to invite others to worship with you, so bring family and friends to join the worship in the sanctuary at 11 pm.

VAC Family Sponsorship

Voluntary Action Center (VAC) is a non-profit that exists to help low-income individuals and families bridge the gaps between crisis and stability and improve quality of life in Boone County. Each year VAC coordinates the collection and distribution of food and gifts for approximately 4,000 people during the holiday season.

First Baptist is participating in the VAC holiday program by sponsoring 3 families. In addition to toys, books, and games, families often receive needed clothing and household supplies through this program. The cards listing the items that our families have requested are located on the bulletin board, in the hallway, outside the Sanctuary. Get involved by choosing an item that you would like to donate, take the card, bring item back wrapped with the card attached to the outside of the package.

If you aren't able to go shopping but would still like to help, you can make a donation to First Baptist Church with "VAC Family Christmas" in the memo line. Gifts will be collected through December 10. If you have any questions, you can contact Michael McEntyre, Associate Pastor of Youth, College and Young Adults, and Missions, at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org.

Columbia Handbells Winter Concerts

The nationally recognized Columbia Handbells are back on stage for their annual crowd pleasing Winter Concerts, Friday, December 8 at 7:00 pm and Tuesday, December 12 at 7:00 pm in the First Baptist Fellowship Hall. The group will be presenting a terrific concert of songs about peace, seasonal carols, a sing-a-long, and of course, the famous bell carol – "Hark, hear the bells..." Tickets are $7 in advance, $10 at the door, and only $1 for kids 12 and under.

2018 Pledges

If you have not yet been able to return your pledge for 2018, pledge cards are available at each entrance of our worship spaces.
