†Call to Worship (responsive)

Young and old,
sons and daughters of God,
all you who are the diverse creations
of God’s imagination and love,
join in praise and thanksgiving
as we worship the One who brings us together.

We come to this place,
Bringing our varied stories,
our unique gifts,
and our distinct calls to serve.

We come together in partnership and mission,
knowing that we are called to be the church:
to celebrate God’s presence,
to serve others,
to seek justice,
to offer the hope of the Resurrected Christ.

We are called to be the body of Christ –
a community of believers,
a household of faith,
a communion of saints,

the people of the covenant.

We are called to the one hope of our high calling –
One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God.

As members of the body of Christ,
we covenant together in this hour
to build on our sure foundation of Jesus Christ our Lord and to seek the vision of Christ's hope for the world.

Angel Scott

Mark 3: 20-35

And the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.” And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebub, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.” And he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

“Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin” – for they had said, “he has an unclean spirit.”

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.” And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

†Renewal of Our Church Covenant (unison)

Because we have responded to Christ's call to follow him as disciples and because we find this calling too difficult and too important to fulfill alone,

We covenant together to support and to pray for one another without ceasing; to be candid in our speech, kind in our attitudes, and caring in all our dealings with one another; to see the mind and vision of Christ for ourselves and our life together, mindful that our unity does not require uniformity.

Moreover, we covenant to give first priority to our times of public worship and learning; to sustain our common mission by proportionate giving, faithful service and personal witness; to live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel we profess and of this family of faith; and to seek each other's forgiveness and God's when we fail to honor this covenant, trusting God's Spirit to renew us in stronger faith, brighter hope and broader love

†Benediction (responsive)

As people of faith we have gathered for worship.

As people of faith we now return to the world.

Go out to share the story of faith,

The story of life, with the world around you.

We share the faith in word and in deed,

In speech and in action.

As you go out to give a living witness,

As you go out to testify to God's love active in the world,

Go knowing that God goes with you,

Sharing the laughter and the hope, the fears and the tears.

Thanks be to God! Amen.
