Silent night, holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing “Alleluia”!
Christ, the Savior is born,
Christ, the Savior is born.

Lighting of the Second Advent Candle (responsive)

Henry, Meredith, & Reed Imler

We continue this season of waiting by lighting the second candle, anticipating the light of the star that shone over Bethlehem for all to see.

Wondrous God, we open ourselves to hear your call of belonging today, to become those who not only see the joy all around us, but can also be joy, and bring joy, to all around us—in our lives, our families, our communities, and our world.

Fill us with your peace and light,
make the world so calm and bright.

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Gospel Reading Luke 2:8-20

David Jacobs

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Advent 2018 – Calm and Bright

Something holy takes place each Christmas Eve at First Baptist when we gather at 11 pm for worship. For our final act of worship, we surround the sanctuary with candlelight and sing together the beautiful carol, “Silent Night.” This year marks the 200th anniversary of the writing of this carol, and in commemoration, we have designed our Advent theme around the words, “Calm and Bright.” In our Advent worship we will explore the implications of a world that finds peace in Christ and of a world that radiates the light of Christ’s presence. Join us as we wait the coming of Christ’s light and the dawn of redeeming grace.

Christmas Dinner, Sunday, December 16

You are invited to celebrate the season with us Sunday evening, December 16 beginning at 5:00pm for First Baptist’s annual Christmas dinner. Come prepared for a lovely meal with turkey, ham, and beverages provided by the church, and wonderful side dishes and desserts prepared by you and your First Baptist friends (ugly Christmas outfits are encouraged).

Contemplative Advent Small Group

This Advent Brittany McDonald Null, Pastoral Resident, will be leading a contemplative small group during the 10:15am Spiritual Formation hour. During the small group, they will engage in the spiritual practices of Lectio Divina and centering prayer and have conversations about contemplative living. For more information or to sign up contact Brittany at bnull@fbc-columbia.org

VAC Holiday Gift Program

Through the Voluntary Action Center Holiday Gift Program, First Baptist adopts several families who need help with Christmas gifts. All gifts should be brought back to church today. They will be going to VAC on Monday for distribution to families for Christmas.

Columbia Handbells Ensemble Winter Concert

The Columbia Handbells Ensemble will be holding their winter concert at First Baptist Church on Sunday, December 9 at 3:00pm in the Sanctuary. They will be performing some selections with the Columbia Youth Chorus. Tickets are $7.00 in advance, $10.00 at the door, and $1.00 for children under 12. Contact Ed Rollins or Noah Hartsfield for tickets and more information.

Blue Christmas

Christmas can be a painful time for some. It may be the first Christmas without a loved one; it may be a time that has always been difficult. Though the Christmas season is often marked with expressions of excitement and joy, we want to recognize that for many, this season evokes a lot of pain and grieving. The anguish of broken relationships, the insecurity of unemployment, the weariness of ill health, the pain of isolation – these can all make us feel alone in the midst of celebration. We need space and time to acknowledge our sadness and grief; we need to know and see that we are not alone.

For these reasons, we are offering a special Blue Christmas service on Friday, December 21 at 6:30pm in the Fellowship Hall. Join us in sharing prayers, scripture, and music that remind us that God's presence is with those who mourn, now and always.
