Lighting of the Fourth Advent Candle (responsive)

Russ Scott &
Angel Kenison-Scott

The season of waiting is almost over.
We light the fourth candle,
anticipating the coming light of the star that shone over Bethlehem for all to see.

God of our future,
we open ourselves to hear your call today—
the call to keep hope alive
no matter the troubles we face.

Help us to never lose hope
and to offer hope to all around us—
making our lives, our families,
our communities,
and our world a brighter place.

Fill us with your peace and light,
make the world so calm and bright.

Scripture Readings
Luke 1:39-56

Kimberly Moeller

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

And Mary said,
"My soul magnifies the Lord,
And my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.
Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
For the Mighty One has done great things for me,

And holy is his name.
His mercy is for those who fear him
From generation to generation.
He has shown strength with his arm;
He has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
And lifted up the lowly;
He has filled the hungry with good things,
And sent the rich away empty.
He has helped his servant Israel,
In remembrance of his mercy,
According to the promise he made to our ancestors,
To Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

The Gospel of Our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

†A Prayer For Hope

Britanny McDonald Null

(As part of the prayer, you are invited to come to the front of the sanctuary and light a candle as a prayer for someone or something that gave you hope, or as an act of defiance against despair.)

Jesus, we wait with eager expectation for the coming of Your kingdom when the humble will be exalted and the hungry fed.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We prepare for Your advent with searching minds and contrite hearts, trusting in Your healing spirit and redemptive love.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We watch with those who wait and weep, longing to see the rule of justice and the reign of peace.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We seek You among the despised and rejected, knowing that there we will find Your light shining in the dark.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We proclaim sight to the blind and liberty to the oppressed, trusting in Your tender mercy and passion for justice.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We work with others to proclaim Your truth,
challenging the mighty and raising the meek.

Your kingdom come, your will be done.

We wrestle with our hopes and our fears, our struggles and our joys laboring with creation to come to new birth.

Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Response to the Light (unison)

Christmas Eve Service

Something holy takes place each Christmas Eve at First Baptist when we gather at 11:00 pm for worship. For our final act of worship, we surround the sanctuary with candlelight and sing together the beautiful carol, "Silent Night." Join us for worship, communion, and candlelight as we gather to proclaim that Christ the Savior is born.

New Sermon Series: Breaking Point

January 6-February 3

Breaking Point: When you are exhausted and burned out,
Lessons from the life of Elijah

If you're feeling stressed out, you're not alone! According to a 2017 Gallup poll, 8 in 10 Americans report they "frequently" or "sometimes" experience stress in their daily lives. The pressures of life can be overwhelming. What do you do when you feel like you are at your Breaking Point? This is the topic for our new sermon series, and it's based on the life of the prophet Elijah found in 1 Kings. Like many of us, Elijah was stressed out and ready to throw in the towel, but he recovered. We can learn a lot about how to take care of ourselves from the life of Elijah. Start your new year by coming to learn about the steps Elijah took to care for himself- sometimes at God's insistence.

Church Directory Photos - February 7-9

You're invited to be a part of our new photo directory. As you look around you today, you will see that we have new families, there have been weddings, and babies, and kids who are young adults now. We're changing, and a new photo directory will help us capture these changes. Our directory won't be complete without you! We are taking early registration online. See our website homepage for more information.
