†Call to Worship (responsive)

Friends, we gather together this morning to proclaim the ways in which God is working within our midst.

We have been blessed by God!

We gather together to give thanks for the ways in which God is working within our midst.

We are being blessed by God!

We gather together to open our eyes to the ways God is using us to work within our midst.

We will continue to be blessed by God!

Dear ones, God has given us so much and is very much alive,
at work and still speaking among us.

We are called to give back.

We are called to be good stewards;

good stewards of our time, of our resources and of our money.

Let us give thanks to our God of blessings and affirm our commitment to the ministry God is calling us into.

Let us give thanks to God!

Let us proclaim our faith in God!

Let us worship God!

Scripture Reading

Richard Hayden

2 Corinthians 8:1-11

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints— and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us, so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you. Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

†Renewal of our Church Covenant (unison)

Because we have responded to Christ's call to follow him as disciples and because we find this calling too difficult and too important to fulfill alone,

We covenant together to support and to pray for one another without ceasing; to be candid in our speech, kind in our attitudes, and caring in all our dealings with one another; to seek the mind and vision of Christ for ourselves and our life together, mindful that our unity does not require uniformity.

Moreover, we covenant to give first priority to our times of public worship and learning; to sustain our common mission by proportionate giving, faithful service and personal witness; to live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel we profess and of this family of faith; and to seek each other's forgiveness and God's when we fail to honor this covenant, trusting God's Spirit to renew us in stronger faith, brighter hope and broader love.

Offertory Prayer

Offering

It is Well

2 Corinthians 9:6-11

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written,

“He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.”

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us;

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Advent Preparations – November 16 and 25

It's that time of the year where we prepare to prepare for Christmas! Join us on Saturday, November 16 from 10 am-noon and Monday, November 25 from 10 am-noon as we gear up for the holiday season. Seasoned crafters and novice decorators are all welcome as we prepare trees, fluff ribbons, paint backdrops and prepare to transform our spaces for the Hanging of the Green.

Annual Pledge & Giving Drive, November 17

November is our annual pledge and giving drive at First Baptist. A few weeks ago, I, Pastor Carol, stumbled across a poem by preacher and poet, Wendell Berry, and fell in love with the last line, "What we need is here." It is a reminder that most of the time, what we need is right in front of us. This is especially true here at First Baptist. We have so many gifts; we just need to learn to trust God and draw upon the abundance God has given. Pledge and giving season is about being grateful for all that God has given us and giving back a portion for God's continued work in us and among us.

You will receive a commitment card that you and your family can use to pray over and plan for how you will give financially to God through First Baptist in 2020. There will be a time during the worship services when you can come forward and place your card in the offering basket.

Advent Jesse Tree Workshop – Sunday, November 17

Join us for an intergenerational Advent event on Sunday, November 17 at 10:15 am during the Small Group Hour. We will have all the supplies for you to make your own Jesse Tree that you can use in your home this Advent season. Jesse Trees are a tradition used to help tell the story from creation to the birth of Jesus. Along with all of the supplies to make your own Jesse tree, you will receive a simple guide for placing the ornaments each day. There is a suggested donation of $10 per Jesse Tree. Please RSVP to the church office at churchinfo@fbc-columbia.org and let us know if you plan to make a tree. The Children's Ministry and Youth Ministry will be participating in the workshop. They will be making fun paper trees and other advent activities.
