Blessing the African Congregation

Call to Prayer (responsive)

As we gather in thanksgiving
let us acknowledge with solemn joy God's gift of shared ministry, remembering with gratitude

*all who have worshiped here,
the faith professed at this font,
the gospel proclaimed from this pulpit,
the assurance received at this table.*

Let us also reaffirm our faith
in our sojourning God,
the God who remains with us and goes with you.

That which we have received from God
let us now return to God with thanksgiving.

Words of Gratitude

Nene Peter

Commissioning (responsive)

Though we say goodbye, we are thankful that God remains with us and God goes with you.

While we cherish our memories, friendships and shared service, we are grateful that

God remains with us and God goes with you.

Our ministries continue, our love for you continues, and we continue to be assured that

God remains with us and God goes with you.

United by one God, one Lord of all and one baptism, we are one as

God remains with us and God goes with you.

God's justice will inspire us,

God's realm will call us to action.

God is eternally for us and with us.

Thanks be to God!

Refrain

Who - ev - er is in Christ is a new cre - a - tion: the old things have passed a - way; be - hold, new things have come.

2 Corinthians 5:14-21

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

"Glory an' honor, glory an' honor!"
Ain' got time to die.*

Ain' got time to die.*

'Cause it takes all o' ma time...

Lord, I keep so busy servin' my Master,

*'Cause when I'm givin' my all,

†Benediction (responsive)

Christians gathered here today, brothers and sisters in faith, we who would wish to be a sign of reconciliation
through the power of the cross:

May the Lord bless us and keep us.

May the Lord make his face shine upon us and be gracious to us.

May the Lord lift up his countenance upon us and give us peace.

Amen.

Musical Guests this morning include Pavel Ilyahov, Maggie Jordan and Peter Miyamoto. They are in town as part of the first "Odyssey Chamber Music Festival." This two-week camp provides an opportunity for students to study with and perform for an exceptional array of faculty members from across the nation.

Peter Miyamoto, pianist, is one of the Odyssey Board members and is on the piano faculty at the University of Missouri-Columbia. He and his wife Ayako have helped to bring this festival to Columbia. Peter holds degrees from the Curtis Institute of Music (B.M.), Yale University (M.M. and A.D.), Michigan State University (D.M.A.), and the Royal Academy of Music (A.D.) in London. A graduate of Philadelphia's renowned Curtis Institute of Music, Pavel has performed chamber music with Yo Yo Ma, Jaime Laredo, Paquito D'Rivera, and members of the Guarneri, Orion and Emerson String Quartets. Pavel is a full-time member of the Virginia Symphony and a substitute violinist with the Philadelphia and Chicago Symphony Orchestras.
