Easter Sunday

“God is revealed in both cross and resurrection; the cry from the cross and the hope of resurrection shape each other. Lament may be a Good Friday prayer, but it makes no sense without Easter. In cross and resurrection, in lament and vindication, God is both with us and for us.”

Procession of the Christ Candle (responsive)

Rachel Jeffries

(The Christ candle, removed from our worship on Good Friday, is returned to the sanctuary as a symbol of Christ’s resurrection.)

We celebrate the good news of God’s love!

We are called to be Easter people!

Darkness cannot claim us!

Fear cannot bind us!

Christ is risen!

Christ is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

Call to Worship (responsive)

Rachel Jeffries

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Alleluia! Christ is with us!

Where shattered hearts are made whole,
where wounded souls are healed,
where life is stronger than death:

there, the stone has been rolled away.

Where the lonely become our friends,
where a stranger is welcomed home,
where hope is stronger than despair,

there, we find Jesus walking.

Where closed minds are opened,
where the anxious find serenity,
where love is stronger than hate:

there, Jesus is opening our eyes.

The stone has been rolled away!

Jesus is our companion on the journey!

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Alleluia! Christ is with us!

†Processional Hymn 234

Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

Blessing of the Children

In the Bulb There Is a Flower

*In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

†Passing the Peace of Christ

John 20:1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever. Amen.

†Hymn 239

I Know that My Redeemer Lives

†Offertory Sentence (unison)

Risen Lord, you have done great things for us, and holy is your name. Bless all we offer you – our selves, our time, and our possessions – that through us your grace and favor may be made known to all the world. Amen.

Message

From Lament to Joy: Only a Fool Would Trust

Carol McEntyre

†Hymn 254

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Observance of Holy Communion (responsive)

We gather at the table of the risen Jesus –
a place fashioned and furnished by love and rich with its promises...

So come –

whether you have seen and believed,
or are dubious and doubting still,
whether you confess confidently,
or with a fragile, fearful heart.

Come and share these gifts of grace,
encounter Christ,
and be healed by Love and transformed by Life.

Before the bright dawn in the garden –
 in which Love was resurrected,
before the cold silence of the tomb –
 by which Love was swallowed,
before the black horror of the cross –
 on which Love was broken,
before the bitter struggle of another garden –
 through which Love affirmed its choices,
Jesus, eating a final supper with his friends,
blessed and broke bread and poured out a cup of wine, Sharing these tokens with them as a confirmation of the life he had lived and a sign of what was to come.
So we, too, recalling that moment,
and honoring that life,
take and break this bread
and pour out this cup
as a confirmation and sign that we are part of its ongoing story.
And remembering with wonder and joy,
we join our voices with that of Creation and with all those who bear witness across the world and throughout the ages
to the transforming power of God's love and life:
 Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Anthem

Let All the World in Every Corner Sing

Murphy

*Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing, my God and King!
The heav'ns are not too high, God's praise may thither fly;
the earth is not too low, God's praises there may grow.
Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing,
The church with psalms must shout: no door can keep them out.
But above all, the heart must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing, my God and King!*

†Benediction (responsive)

Go into the world trusting in the resurrection.

The stone has been rolled away. The tomb is empty.

Jesus is our living companion on the journey.

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again!

Holy Laughter Sunday

Next Sunday, April 8, we will celebrate Holy Humor Sunday, to continue celebrating and giving thanks for the resurrection of Jesus and our own smaller resurrections. Prepare yourself with some deep belly laughs, brush up on your favorite jokes, bust out those bright-colored clothes and funky socks, and join us for a fun Sunday celebrating the resurrection! Brittany McDonald Null will lead the laughter.

Sign up today for Seminar with LeAnn Gardner

Licensed Clinical Social Worker and ordained minister LeAnn Gardner returns to First Baptist via Skype to present Talking to Your Kids about Sexual Harassment & Assault on Saturday, April 7 in the Fellowship Hall. Dinner is served at 5 pm in the Fellowship Hall. The seminar is from 6-7:15 pm. Cost of the event is $10/person or $20/couple, which includes dinner for the whole family and child care for infants up to grade 5. After dinner, the nursery will open for infants. Yvette Chambers, Director of Children's Ministry, is planning a fun evening for the children. To register, email Brenda Rice at brice@fbc-columbia.org.

ForColumbia 2018 is April 28

As part of our involvement with ForColumbia 2018, First Baptist will serve as a collection site for supplies leading up to our day of service; and during ForColumbia workday, our church will serve as a prayer hub for work efforts in Columbia's Second Ward. The prayer hub is a new addition to the day of service. We are asking that people sign up to come and pray for the sites, volunteers, and needs of those we encounter during the day.

Through Sunday, April 15, we invite you to contribute travel sized mouth wash, Q-tips, bar soap, and Chapstick. These items will be combined with items collected by other churches to create kits to give to various organizations. Bring your donations to worship on any Sunday through April 15, or bring them to the church office no later than Friday, April 13.

Watch for further updates, and be sure to save the date to help serve our Columbia family.

Worship Notes

The monologue for Mary Magdalene was written by Carol Penner and posted on <https://re-worship.blogspot.ca/2014/04/easter-monologue-mary-on-easter-morning.html>.

The reading for the Procession of the Christ Candle was written by Nancy C. Townley, and posted on the Worship Connection page of the Ministry Matters website.

The Call to Worship was written by Thom Shuman and posed on <https://re-worship.blogspot.com/2011/04/call-to-worshipprayer-for-easter-3.html>.

The Communion liturgy is from Transformed by Life: An Easter Communion Liturgy by Pat Bennett. Published 2014 by Wild Goose Publications, the publishing division of the Iona Community, Glasgow.

Special thanks to the youth for their help in preparing today's brunch by cooking muffins.

Special thanks also to Erika Didio who opened the worship service as Mary Magdalene. Erika is a 2nd year Acting Major-Musical Theatre Emphasis from Yuma, Arizona. She is beyond excited to be at Stephens College to augment her training in singing, dancing, acting, theatre for young audiences, and technical theatre. Previous roles at Stephens College have been Countess Olivia in Twelfth Night, Elizabeth Proctor in an Off-The-Wall production of The Crucible, and Harriet's Understudy/ensemble in Emma. She offers glory to God and many thanks to the faculty, her beloved family, and friends.

Songs printed in bulletin by permission, CCLI #1515189 & OneLicense.net #A-707314.

Thank you for worshiping with us today! If you wish to share this worship experience with a neighbor, the service is broadcast live, and the sermon is available on our website within a week.
