Isaiah 6:1-7

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!”

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.”

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Declaration of Forgiveness (responsive)

In the temple, Isaiah heard these words:
“Your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.”

God’s grace toward us has not been in vain!
This is the good news we have received:
in Christ’s death and resurrection,
we have been saved.
Thanks be to God!

The Morning Trumpet

White/arr. Wilberg

*O when shall I see Jesus and reign with him above,
and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning;
And from the flowing fountain drink everlasting love,
And shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*But now I am a soldier, my captain’s gone before,
and I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
He’s given me my orders and he bids me ne’er give o’er,
Til I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*When shall I be delivered from this vain world of sin,
and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
And with my blessed Jesus drink endless pleasures in,
and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
O shout with glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

†Hymn

God is Calling

1 God is call-ing through the whis-per of the Spir - it's deep-est sighs,
2 God is call-ing through the voic-es of our neigh-bors' ur-gent prayers,
3 God is call-ing through the mu-sic of sub-lime and hu-man arts, through the thrill of sud-den beau-ties that can catch us by sur-prise.

through their long-ing for re-demp-tion and for res-cue from de-spair.
through the hymns of earth and an-gels, and the car-ols of our hearts.

Flash of light-ning, crash of thun-der; hush of still-ness, rush of won-der:
Place of hurt or face of need-ing; stri-dent cry or si-lent plead-ing:
Lift of joy and gift of sing-ing; days and nights our prais-es bring-ing:

God is call - ing—can you hear? God is call - ing—can you hear?
God is call - ing—can you hear? God is call - ing—can you hear?
God is call - ing—and we hear! God is call - ing—and we hear!

†Offertory Sentence (unison)

We are invited to cast our nets into God's abundance, and to share what we have received with others.

As we give our tithes and offerings today,
we put our trust in the one who has called us to follow him:
Jesus Christ, the great Fisher of people.

Announcements

$50 For 50

In celebration of the 50th year of quality preschool education, the Child Development Center is asking church members to donate $50 during the month of February to help replenish their scholarship fund. This fund provides educational experiences for disadvantaged youth, contributes to their technology initiative which will enhance the overall program and safety, and for new tricycles to replace broken ones. Donations can be made to the Child Development Center and left at the CDC office, church office, or left in the offering plates during Sunday service.

CBF Offering for Global Missions – February 2019

During the month of February, First Baptist members will have the opportunity to support the work of Cooperative Baptist Field Personnel around the world by giving to the CBF Offering for Global Missions. Your support of the Offering for Global Missions will share the Gospel message and provide tangible gifts of God's grace and mercy. 100% of your gifts to the offering goes to missions funding, including the work of our very own Keith Holmes and Mary Van Rheenen. Your gifts can be placed in one of the Global Missions envelopes in worship or indicated on the memo line of the check. Checks should be made out to First Baptist Church. The church will send one check to CBF following the offering. Thank you for your generosity.

Ordination of Brittany McDonald Null – Sunday, February 17

In Baptist life, ordination is a church's recognition of God's calling and gifting on a person. By ordaining Brittany, we are affirming that we see God's call on her life and that we have witnessed her giftedness for ministry. We are, in the name of God, setting apart and blessing her for gospel ministry. You are all invited to come and take part in this special worship service. Following the service, a reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall.

Room at the Inn, First Baptist – February 17-March 3

There has been an increased need for beds at Room at the Inn this year. They are trying to accommodate as many guests as possible, but have an increased need for volunteers as a result. If you are available to assist with the check-in shift (arrive at 6 pm), please consider helping them. First Baptist will host Room at the Inn from Sunday, February 17 to Sunday, March 3 in the Fellowship Hall, but you don't have to wait until then to help. You can sign up for a volunteer spot with RATI today by going to <http://www.roomattheinncomo.org>.

In addition, First Baptist is also specifically asking for volunteers to serve outside the CDC entrance each morning and afternoon during dropoff and pickup to greet CDC parents and kids and direct any guests for RATI around to the front of the building for check-in or assistance. Sign up for this opportunity can only be done by contacting the church directly. You can call the office at 573-442-1149 or find the sign up link on our website at www.fbc-columbia.org

Lent Sermon Series – February 24

Did God Kill Jesus? Understanding the Cross

Okay, I admit that I was trying to be provocative with the title “Did God Kill Jesus?” I promise, during the series, we will talk about why I used this question, but hopefully, you also noticed that subtitle of the sermon series: Understanding the Cross. Throughout history, Christians have contended that through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, humans are reconciled to God. The cross has been considered a focal point of that reconciliation. In theological terms, this is called the atonement. The word atonement literally means at-one-ment. Atonement is the process by, which God makes humanity one with God; it is the process of reconciliation. So, Christians agree that through Jesus we are reconciled to God but exactly how that act of God actually works- its mechanics- has never been agreed on in Christian history. There is no consensus about how it works!

Some Christians have taught that reconciliation happens because Jesus Christ died as a ransom sacrifice, paid either to Satan (the most dominate view), or to God. And, Jesus’ death then acts as a payment to satisfy the debt on the souls of the human race. Because this debt is paid, we are reconciled. Other Christians have taught that reconciliation happens because Jesus Christ death defeated the powers of evil (such as sin, death, and the devil) in order to free humankind from their bondage. Throughout Christian history, different models or lenses have been used to explain how reconciliation happens-- the two I just mentioned are called The Ransom Model and Christus Victor Model.

So, this sermon series is going to be a serious theological study of the cross and atonement. I think you will find it informative, fascinating and hopefully it will deepen your appreciation for what Christ did for us. At the same time, because of how weighty the series is, we are going to offer some small group opportunities to unpack what we are learning about. You will hear more about these in the coming weeks. I really hope you will participate!
