Prelude

Praise to the Lord

arr. Behnke

†Call to Worship (responsive)

We come before God as equal in God's sight.

God knows us thoroughly and loves us completely.

None of us is perfect and without blemish.

Yet God has called us children and asked us to be compassionate and responsible in our caring and witness.

We are called to joyful obedience in God's realm.

Thanks be to God who trusts us and pours abundant love on us.

Amen.

†Processional Hymn

(song on page 6-7)

Gather Us In

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sin,

as we forgive those who sin against us,

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,

and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Out of the depths
have I cried unto Thee, O Lord.
Lord, hear my voice:
Let Thine ears be attentive
to the voice of my supplication.
If Thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities,
Lord, who shall stand?
But there is forgiveness with Thee
that Thou mayest be feared.*

*I wait for the Lord,
my soul doth wait,
And in His word do I hope;
My soul waiteth for the Lord
more than they that watch for the morning.
Let Israel hope in the Lord for with the Lord there is mercy,
And with Him is redemption,
And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.*

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
World without end.
Amen, Amen.*

Luke 18:9-14

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Message

Pastor Carol McEntyre

Litany for Humility (responsive)

God, we turn toward you now.

Be merciful to us, sinners.

We feel we must defend ourselves.

We take refuge in you.

We feel we must silence others.

We choose to be still instead.

We feel we must rebut every argument.

We look to you for what is right.

We feel we must make ourselves appear powerful.

We remember that your power is made perfect in weakness.

Help us to not point fingers or launch accusations.

Help us to firmly and peaceably stand up for what is good.

Help us to know when it is our time to speak out and speak up.

Help us to know when we should amplify the voices of others.

Help us to take care of our own hearts before criticizing others.

Help us to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly.

We recognize that we are sinners

In need of mercy.

We recognize that we all see in part,

In need of divine perspective.

We recognize that we are all fighting a great battle,

In need of kindness.

May we imitate the humility of Christ,

We turn toward Jesus now.

Be merciful to us. Amen.

†Hymn of Commitment

There is a Wideness in God's Mercy

Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken
